

2018 Adult Programs

The Valentine has been collecting, preserving and interpreting Richmond's 400-year history for more than a century. From walking tours to exhibitions, gallery talks and hands-on programs, the Valentine offers numerous ways to explore Richmond's diverse history.

Guided Group Tours

The Valentine is your source for Richmond's history through interactive exhibitions, tours and programs.

This Is Richmond, Virginia

Explore Richmond's complex history and countless stories through five themes: Why the fall line? Where do we live? What do we produce? Who has a voice? and What do we value?

The 1812 Wickham House

Visit the 1812 Wickham House, a National Historic Landmark.

Let's Make History!

Explore the role of design and decorative arts in the 19th century home. Includes a hands-on art activity.

The Valentine First Freedom Center

Delve into America's experience of religious liberty from its European antecedents through today at the site where the Virginia Statute for Religious Freedom was enacted in 1786.

African Americans in Richmond

Explore how African Americans in Richmond have defined the city and influenced the nation, from early settlement to the twentieth-century Civil Rights Movement and beyond.

Changing Exhibitions

With a full schedule of permanent and temporary exhibitions, there is always something new to discover at the Valentine. Visit thevalentine.org for information about exhibitions, group visits and more!

Valentine City Tours

The Valentine offers hundreds of opportunities to explore Richmond on foot, by bike, by bus or with your dog. Visit thevalentine.org/tours for a full tour schedule and to learn about our private tours for groups!

Valentine Garden Café

Garnett's at the Valentine offers an assortment of sandwiches, salads and desserts Monday-Friday 11 a.m.-4 p.m. 804-649-9550

Admission & Program Prices

Adults $40
Groups, Seniors, Students $8
Military, Children under 18 and Valentine Members: FREE
Interactive History Programs: $80

To reserve a program or tour, call 804-649-0711 or email education@thevalentine.org. Visit thevalentine.org to find out more!

INTERACTIVE HISTORY PROGRAMS 2018

Investigate the past with these engaging outreach programs that explore a variety of Richmond themes and stories using the Valentine's extensive collection of primary sources, artifacts and historic audio and video materials.

A Tale of Two Stores

Revisit the glory days of Richmond's downtown as a shopping and social destination through two of Richmond's former department stores, Thalhimers and Miller & Rhoads.

I Know Richmond: Faces and Places

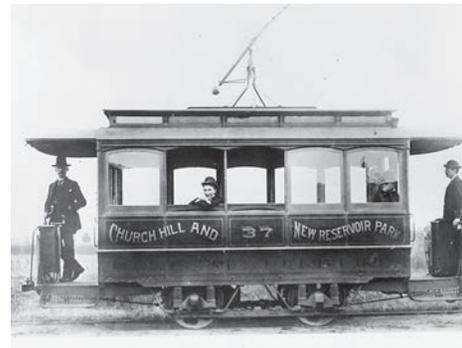

Discover the iconic people and places that shaped Richmond history and its landmarks.

I Know Richmond: River City

Explore the effects that the James River had on the development of Richmond including transportation, industry and recreation.

NEW! Leading Women of Richmond

From the Civil War to the modern era, discover the Richmond women whose work in education, literature, suffrage, philanthropy and more transformed life in Richmond for us all.

Getting There from Here

As transportation in Richmond evolved, so has the landscape of our city and its limits. See how the progression from buggy to bus is reflected in Richmond's development.

Program length:
1 hour

Cost:
$80 per program

Financial aid is available for qualifying organizations. Please inquire for more information.

For reservations and information call (804) 649-0711 or email education@thevalentine.org

The Valentine's Interactive Adult History Programs are generously supported by Virginia Premier Health.

NEW! Byrd Park, the Carillon and the Canals

Explore the surprising history of Byrd Park, the reservoir, the pump houses and the canals, as well as the architectural gems of the Carillon neighborhood.

Congregating Faith

Communities emerged throughout Richmond driven by shared faith and places of worship. Learn about the history of religious diversity within the city.

Form and Function: RVA Architecture

From classic to contemporary, Richmond showcases some of the nation's earliest architectural styles and designs of internationally prominent architects. Learn about the gems and oddities of the city's architecture.

Hollywood Cemetery: A Park and Garden

Stroll through Hollywood Cemetery and enjoy the history, architecture and landscape that comprise this public space.

Please Enjoy the Show

From playhouses to movie palaces, be entertained by Richmond's historic theaters.

Powhatan Indians

Explore the lives of the area's earliest inhabitants, the Eastern Woodland Indians, and their reliance on natural resources.

Richmond in Focus

Using images from the Valentine's collection, learn about Richmond through the eye of the lens from 1850 to the present.

Soul of a Community

From early settlement and the slave trade to the establishment of businesses and communities, explore how African Americans in Richmond have defined the city and influenced the nation.

