Current Exhibitions

Dive deeper into Richmond history with a visit to one of our current exhibitions. Visits include a dialogue-based tour and hands on history exploration or group discussion.

Monument Avenue: General Demotion/General Devotion – Study the results of a national design competition to re-imagine Monument Avenue.

Dressing Identity: Understanding Ourselves and Caring for Collections – Explore how clothing and accessories project symbols of identity and enjoy a behind-the-scenes look at how the Valentine preserves objects for generations to come.

Developing Richmond: Photographs from the Cook Studio – Explore photographs visually documenting Richmond at the turn of the 20th century.

Voices from Richmond's Hidden Epidemic – Local stories of those affected by the HIV/AIDS crisis—from survivors and caregivers to activists and health care workers on the front lines.

Votes for Women: Richmond's Battle for Suffrage – Explore the journey of Richmond suffrage groups fighting for the 19th Amendment.

This is Richmond, Virginia – Discover the people, places, objects and buildings that define our city.

1812 Wickham House – Explore aspects of life in the early-19th century and the enslaved experience in Richmond through a dialogue-based tour of this historic home.

The Valentine First Freedom Center – Delve into America's experience of religious liberty at the site where the Virginia Statute for Religious Freedom was enacted.
