This collection of Women’s Suffrage Centennial Signed Art Prints and Notecards by graphic artist Meneese Wall is sure to inspire reflection and conversation.

Each piece is inspired by historical events, people, quotes and memorabilia that led to the passage of the 19th Amendment.

All works come with a brief historical background describing its significance within the struggle for women to win the right to vote.
Because man and woman are the complement of one another, we need woman’s thought in national affairs to make a safe and stable government.

Elizabeth Cady Stanton

"I think bicycling has done more to emancipate women than anything else in the world. It gives women a feeling of freedom and self-reliance."
