

COLLECTIONS IN THE CLASSROOM

Richmond Police Officer Vinceretta Davis, 1966

ERA

Civil Rights, Mid 20th Century

THEMES

Jobs, Education, Segregation,
Church Hill Neighborhood

CITATION INFORMATION

Richmond Times-Dispatch
Photograph Collection.
V.66.10.276/PHC0076.
The Valentine.

ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS

1. Who makes sure you are safe at school?
2. Do crossing guards or police officers help you cross the street?
3. How does your school thank them for their service?

CONTEXT

This is a photograph of Richmond policewoman, Mrs. Vinceretta Davis, being presented with a corsage by the teachers and students of Bellevue School in Richmond, Virginia in honor of her service to the school and keeping students safe. Mrs. Davis is wearing her police uniform and is standing with student members of the safety patrol.

DISCOVER
RICHMOND STORIES

For more stories visit thevalentine.org or email education@thevalentine.org

Richmond Times-Dispatch Photograph Collection. V.66.10.276/PHC0076.
The Valentine.