“Go To Richmond!”

Instructions for a Go-Fish Like Card Game

Game Objectives: Students will try to match as many Richmond History Makers, Flags and State Symbols as possible. Students will review social studies curriculum while looking at primary sources and will have fun!

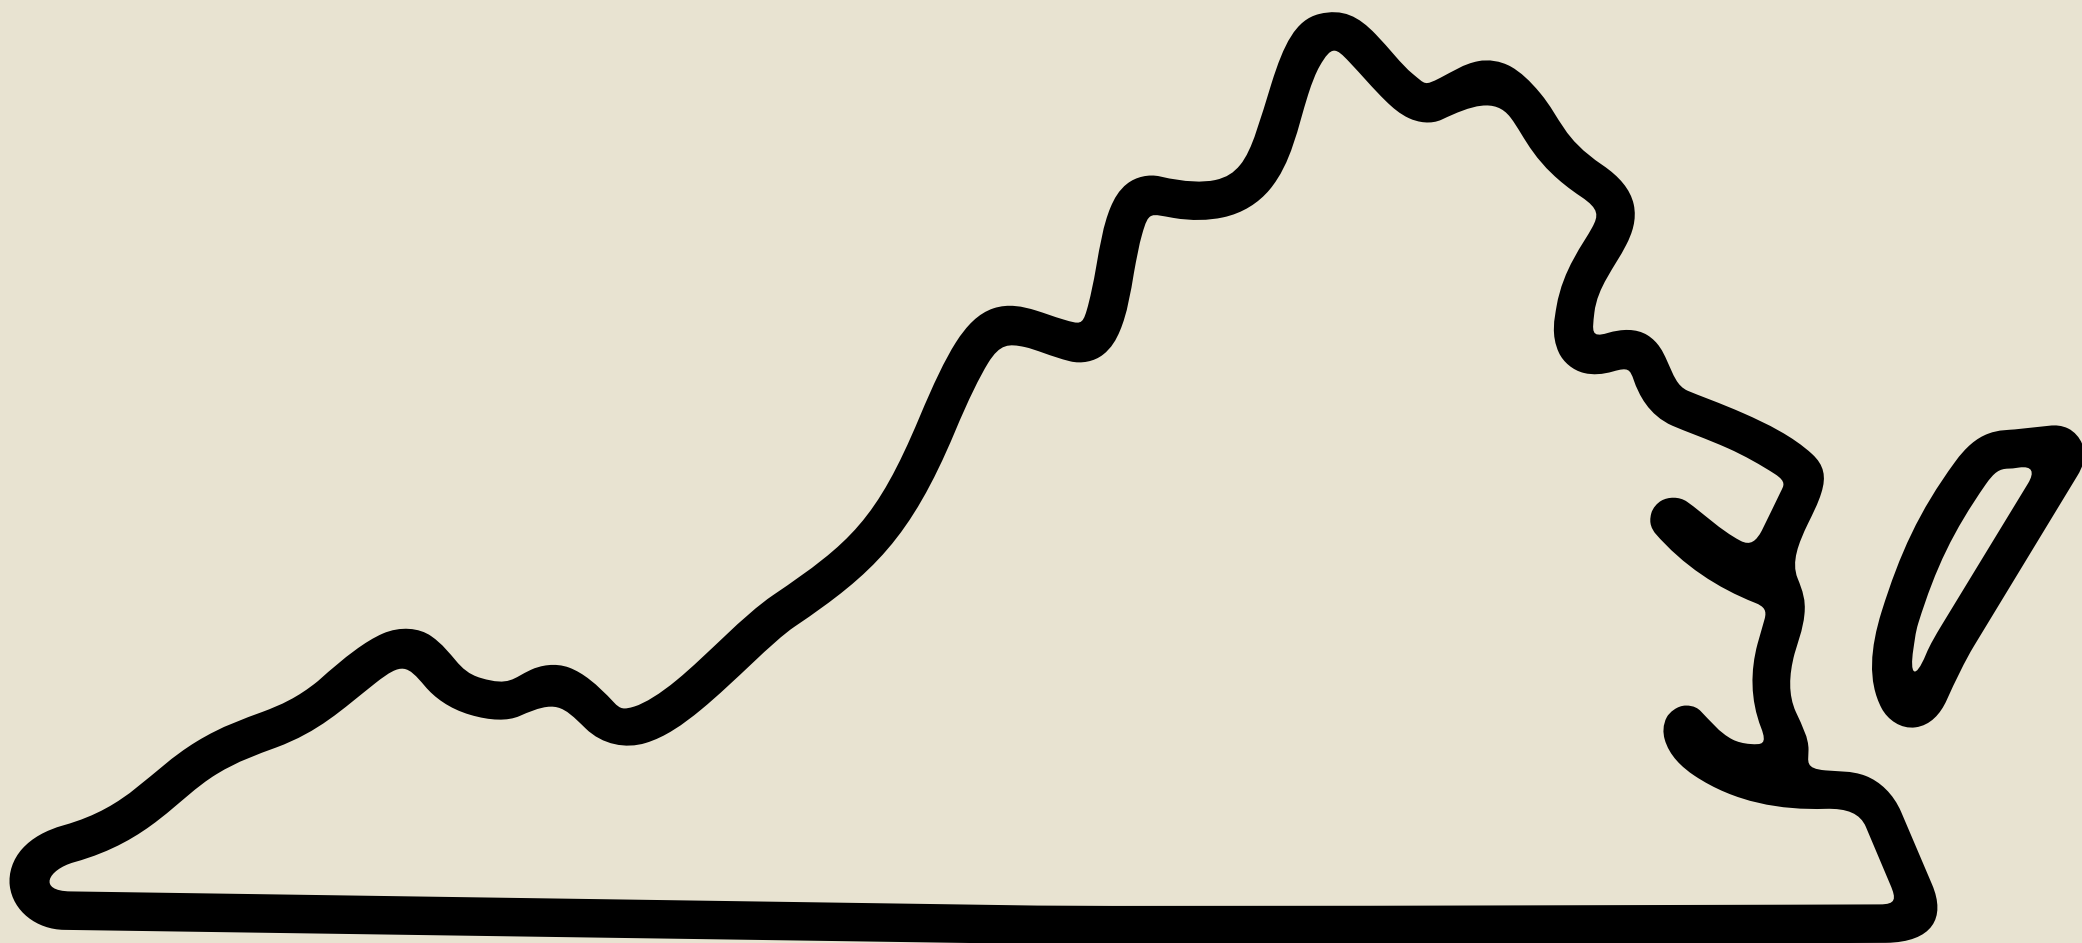

2015 and 2023 SOLs : 1.2, 1.3, 1.5, 1.11, 1.12, 1.13

Based on VDOE SOL Crosswalk 2023

Instructions: To be played in a group of 5 or fewer students.

1. Deal each player 5–7 cards, depending on the number of players. The remaining cards are placed face down on the map of Virginia in the middle of the players as the draw pile.
2. Take turns. Either the youngest player or the player to the left of the dealer goes first, and play continues clockwise.
3. Ask for a card. On their turn, a player asks another player for a specific history maker, flag or symbol card, such as "Do you have any Pocahontas cards?" The player asking must already have at least one of the requested cards.
4. If the player being asked has the card, they must give it to the player asking. If they don't have the card, they say "Go to Richmond."
5. If a player is told "Go to Richmond", they draw a card from the draw pile. If the card is the one they asked for, they can match it with their card and put down the match in front of them, cards facing up. Then their turn ends. If the card is not what they asked for, they keep it and their turn ends.
6. End of game. The game ends when all sets have been laid down, or when the draw pile is empty. The player with the most matches is the winner!
